At the Movies 2018: Shipwrecked: In keeping with the theme of our Vacation Bible School theme, we will be utilizing movies throughout the summer (they all have an incident of shipwrecked in them) that illustrate the goodness of God as applicable to our lives. Movies are not in and of themselves the words of God, but like all created things in our world, we can use them as indicators of God's good and pleasing will for our lives, if only we have eyes to see and ears to hear. The Word of God, as taken from Scriptures and applied to the movies, comes to us as the fulfillment or completion of the message that we might possibly glean from movies. And in the end of it all, we will also discover that we are able to look at movies with a more critical, but redemptive eye and ear. This summer, come and join us as we discover God's word.
