

Message Outline: Hope Fellowship Courtice November 22, 2020
John 1:19-28 Who am I?
Rev Steve Kooy Geneva House Campus Ministry kooy@queensu.ca

Introduction

Generations

1946-1960 _____

1961-1980 Gen _____

1981-1995 Gen Y aka _____

1995-2010 Gen _____

2010-pres Gen _____

Young adults are in a time of tremendous _____.

Figure out what this means by asking a Gen Z or looking it up on the internet:
I'm mad salty right now though, lowkey. Big yikes. No cap.

One of the biggest questions young adults wrestle with is _____?

John 1:19-28

John was a prophet who was born just before Jesus and his job was to prepare people to meet the _____.

There are no short cuts on the road to _____.

Who are you?

Israel was longing for a great _____.

Israel was ruled by other nations for about _____ years and God stopped talking to them for _____ years.

The people of Israel were in a spiritual _____.

There is a spiritual battle going on for the _____ of this generation.

Who is discipling you?

Our generation needs to be exposed to some more _____ in the wilderness that point people to Jesus.

A recent study showed that university students' biggest challenges right now are stress, anxiety, and _____.

Our _____ is overwhelmed and oppressed.

Christ followers are God's _____, His voice calling in the wilderness.

Our world cannot afford to wait another minute to hear God's _____.

Who are we not?

Humility is seeing yourself the way _____ sees you.

We are not who other people say we are. We are who God _____ we are.

The bible is full of incredible passages that tell us who we are in God's eyes.
Here is a small list: <https://www.pinterest.ca/pin/537335799267838909/>

Do you see yourself the way God sees you?

Wherever you are at with God today - you are a child of God, you are loved, you are never alone.

If you are a follower of Jesus - you are forgiven, you are set apart, you are God's messenger. You _____ people to Jesus.

Conclusion

Who am I?

The best way to start to answer this question is to put _____ firmly in the center of your life.

No matter what question or what situation we face in life, we can know God is with us, He is for us, we are who He says we are.